

Everybody Matters: Sustaining Dignity in Care

Monday 12th April 2010, 09.00 – 16.00
at City University, London

Would you like the opportunity to share the complexities of delivering dignified nursing care and some of the ‘small things’ that make a difference?

At this conference we aim to provoke thought and conversation and hope you will leave feeling Inspired, Enabled and Empowered.

Topics include:-

- Differing perspectives on dignity
- More than measuring?
- Working appreciatively
- Innovations to change practice

We are a ‘Dignity in Care’ Research and Development Project team, based at Barnet and Chase Farm NHS Trust and Royal Free Hospital NHS Trust working with City University and Age UK, looking at practical ways of promoting dignity in hospital.

For details of the conference and booking form please contact:

Emily Shave 020 7040 0184 or e.c.shave@city.ac.uk

Cost £50 for participants external to the Project Trusts.

Limited places. Apply early